ABOUT THE PROGRAM:

On Saturday, June 23, we're firing up a talk about barbecue with pig pickin' guru and television personality Bob Garner. Take a delectable journey to the best barbecue spots throughout North Carolina and discover the history of this age old rural tradition, flavored by time. Sit back and learn the secrets of cooking with wood verse electricity, the difference between western and eastern style barbecue and the etiquette of a pig pickin'. After the program, treat your tastebuds to samples of slow-roasted pork served with a sweet'n sour dip with a pinch of tomato, or hog basted with a lively blend of vinegar and pepper; buffet provided by Stamey's of Greensboro and Wilbur's of Goldsboro. After the program, visit with Bob Garner and purchase personalized autographed copies of his books North Carolina Barbecue: Flavored by Time, and Bob Garner's Guide to North Carolina Barbecue.

This program is made possible with funding from the Museum Gift Shop and from the Dortch endowment, which was created in 1985 by the attorneys and staff of Smith Moore in memory of their partner John J. Dortch.
